10. At present, it is submitted that the Official Liquidator is not seized of any movable or immovable assets for realization. Further, it appears that the process of liquidation has been carried out in full and the affairs of the company (in liquidation) are completely wound up. 12. At this juncture, it is expedient to consider the decision in Meghal Homes (P) Ltd. v. Shree Niwas Girni K.K. Samiti & Ors.<sup>2</sup> whereby the Supreme Court inter alia held as under:-

“When the affairs of the Company have been completely wound up or the court finds that the Official Liquidator cannot proceed with the winding up of the Company for want of funds or for any other reason, the court can make an order dissolving the Company from the date of that order. This puts an end to the winding up process.”

13. It would also be relevant to reproduce Section 481 of the Act, which provides for dissolution of a company under such circumstances as are prevailing in the present matter, and the relevant portion of the same reads as under:

“Section 481. Dissolution of company.

(1) When the affairs of a company have been completely wound up or when the Court is of the opinion that the liquidator cannot proceed with the winding up of a company for want of funds and assets or for any of the reason whatsoever and it is just and reasonable in the circumstances of the case that an order of dissolution of the company should be made, the Court shall make an order that the company be dissolved from the date of the order, and the company shall be dissolved accordingly.”

14. In view of the above-mentioned decision of the Supreme Court in Meghal Homes (supra), as well as keeping in mind the import of Section 481 (1) of the Act and the facts and circumstances of the present case, these liquidation proceedings warrant to be brought to an end and therefore, the company (in liquidation) – M/s. Saraf Paper Mills Ltd., stands dissolved and the Official Liquidator is hereby discharged as its Liquidator.

15. The Official Liquidator is permitted to transfer any surplus amount remaining with the company after deduction of expenses to the common pool fund and thereafter close the books of accounts of the company.

16. A copy of this Judgment be communicated to the Registrar of Companies within 30 days by the Official Liquidator.

17. Accordingly, the present company petition and pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
