ORAL ORDER

3. Learned advocate for the applicants submits that considering the nature of offence and role attributed to the applicants, the applicants may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

4. The learned APP appearing for the respondent State vehemently submits that the offences which have been charged, are serious in nature and looking to the facts as well as the allegations made against the applicants, no discretion would be required to be exercised.

5. This court has considered the following aspects:
 - (a) As per catena of decisions of Hon'ble Supreme Court, there are mainly 3 factors which are required to be considered by this court i.e. prima facie case, availability of applicants accused at the time of trial and tampering and hampering with the witnesses by the accused.
 - (b) That the learned Advocate for the applicants have submitted that the applicants Accused are not likely to flee away.

6. I have heard learned advocates appearing for the parties and perused the papers of investigation. From the record it appears that the investigation is over and Charge-sheet has already been filed. The present applicants are alleged to be driver and cleaner, respectively, of the vehicle from which 8004 bottles of contraband liquor worth Rs.32,86,800/- had been seized. The applicants do not appear to have any other antecedents for the offence punishable under Prohibition Act. Considering the same, the present application deserves to be allowed.

7. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of allegations made in the FIR and without discussing the evidence in details as well as without going into details, prima-facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion to enlarge the applicants on bail. Hence, the application is allowed and the applicants are ordered to be released on bail in connection with the aforesaid FIR, on executing a bond of

Rs.10,000/- (EACH) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that;

- (a) shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the fact of the case so as to dissuade from disclosing such facts to the Court or any Police Officer or tamper with the evidence.
- (b) shall maintain law and order and not to indulge in any criminal activities.

It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions in accordance with law.

9. At the trial, the concerned trial Court shall not be influenced by the prima facie observations made by this Court in the present order.

10. Rule made absolute to the aforesaid extent.
