ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice of rule for respondent – State of Gujarat.
2. The present application is filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11210021220857/2022 registered with the Katargam Police Station, Surat for the offence punishable under Sections 8(c), 20(b)(ii-B) and 29 of the NDPS Act.
3. Learned advocate for the applicant submitted that the so-called incident has taken place on 27.09.2022, for which, the FIR has been lodged on 28.09.2022 and the applicant has been arrested in connection with the same on 03.07.2023 and since then, he is in judicial custody. Learned advocate submitted that now the investigation is completed and after submission of the chargesheet, the present application is preferred. Learned advocate submitted that FIR is lodged against total three accused persons and the accused nos.1 and 2 were caught red-handed on the spot with conscious possession of the contraband articles and during the course of investigation, they have disclosed the name of the present applicant and, hence, he has been arraigned as accused. Learned advocate submitted that there is no recover or discovery at the instance of the present applicant and except the statement of co-accused, no other material is found out against the applicant. Learned advocate submitted that there is no antecedent reported against the applicant. It is, therefore, urged that considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

4. Learned APP for the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence. It is submitted that the role of the present applicant is clearly spelt out from the papers of the chargesheet and, hence, the present application may not be entertained.
5. Learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties do not press for further reasoned order.
6. I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers of the investigation and considered the allegations levelled against the applicant and the role played by the applicant. It is found out from the record that the present application is preferred after submission of the chargesheet and now the investigation is completed and the applicant is in jail since 03.07.2023. The applicant was not found available at the place of occurrence and on the strength of the statement of the co-accused, the applicant is arraigned as accused. No antecedent is reported against the applicant. I have considered the role attributed to the present applicant at the time of commission of crime. Therefore considering the above factual aspects, the present application deserves to be allowed.

7. This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. Central Bureau of Investigation, reported in [2012] 1 SCC 40 as well as in case of Satender Kumar Antil v. Central Bureau of Investigation & Anr. reported in (2022) 10 SCC 51.
8. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.
9. Hence, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No.11210021220857/2022 registered with the Katargam Police Station, Surat on executing a personal bond of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall;
