CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DIVYESH A. JOSHI

Date : 09/05/2024

ORAL ORDER

1. Leave to amend is granted. Learned advocate for the applicant to carry out the amendment forthwith.
2. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice of Rule for and on behalf of respondent - State.
3. The present successive application is filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for regular bail in connection with C.R.No.11208002230288 of 2023 registered with Aji Dem Police Station, Rajkot City for the offence punishable under Sections 376(3) and 506(2) of the Indian Penal Code and under Section 4 of the POCSO Act.
4. Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the applicant submits that considering the nature of the offence, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions. It is submitted that applicant has been arrested on 05.05.2023 and since then he is in judicial custody. It is further submitted that investigation is already concluded and present application is filed after submission of charge-sheet. Learned advocate for the applicant submits that earlier an application seeking bail was preferred after submission of charge-sheet and the same was withdrawn with a liberty to file fresh application before this Court after recording the deposition of the victim girl. The deposition of the victim girl is recorded by the learned Trial Court wherein she has not supported the case of the prosecution and turned hostile. Learned advocate further submits that even the complainant has also not supported the case of the prosecution. Thus, considering the aforesaid factual aspects, applicant may be enlarged on bail.

5. Learned APP appearing on behalf of the respondent-State has opposed grant of regular bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.
6. Learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties do not press for further reasoned order.
7. I have heard the learned advocates appearing on behalf of the respective parties and perused the papers of the investigation and considered the allegations levelled against the applicant and the role played by the applicant. It is found out from the record that this is the successive bail application. The earlier application was withdrawn with a liberty to file afresh after recording the deposition of the victim girl. Now, the deposition of the victim is recorded and she has not supported the case of the prosecution and turned hostile. The investigation is already over and charge-sheet is filed. The applicant is in jail since 21.07.2023. Thus, considering the aforesaid factual aspects, I am inclined to consider this application.

8. This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. Central Bureau of Investigation, reported in [2012]1 SCC 40 as well as in case of Satender Kumar Antil v. Central Bureau of Investigation & Anr. reported in (2022)10 SCC 51.
9. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of the allegations made against the applicant in the FIR, without discussing the evidence in detail, prima facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion and enlarge the applicant on regular bail.
10. Hence, the present application is allowed and the applicant is ordered to be released on regular bail in connection with C.R.No.11208002230288 of 2023 registered with Aji Dem Police Station, Rajkot City on executing a personal bond of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that he shall;
 - [a] not take undue advantage of liberty or misuse liberty;
 - [b] not act in a manner injuries to the interest of the prosecution;
 - [c] surrender passport, if any, to the lower court

within a week;

- [f] furnish the present address of residence to the Investigating Officer and also to the Court at the time of execution of the bond and shall not change the residence without prior permission of this Court;

11. The authorities will release the applicant only if he is not required in connection with any other offence for the time being. If breach of any of the above conditions is committed, the Sessions Judge concerned will be free to issue warrant or take appropriate action in the matter. Bail bond to be executed before the lower Court having jurisdiction to try the case. It will be open for the concerned Court to delete, modify and/or relax any of the above conditions, in accordance with law.
12. At the trial, the trial Court shall not be influenced by the observations of preliminary nature qua the evidence at this stage made by this Court while enlarging the applicant on bail.
13. The present application stands allowed accordingly. Rule is made absolute. Direct service is permitted.
