Date : 28/05/2024

COMMON ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APPs Mr. H.K.Patel and Ms.Ashmita Patel waives service of notice of Rule on behalf of respondent-State.

2. By way of the present application under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, the applicant-accused has prayed for anticipatory bail in connection with the FIR being C.R. No. I-11192050240140 of 2024 registered with Sanand Police Station, Ahmedabad for the offences punishable under Sections 365, 392, 384, 347, 506(2) and 114 of IPC.

3. Learned Sr.Adv. Mr.Unwala for the applicant submits that the nature of allegations are such for which custodial interrogation, at this stage, is not necessary. Learned Sr.Adv. Mr.Unwala further submits that the applicant will keep himself available during the course of investigation, trial also and will not flee from justice.

4. Learned Sr.Adv. Mr.Unwala for the applicant on instructions states that the applicant is ready and willing to abide by all the conditions including imposition of conditions with regard to powers of Investigating Agency to file an application before the competent Court for his remand.

5. Ld.Sr.Adv.Mr.Jal Unwala assisted by Mr.Pravin Gondaliya for the respondent No.1 has not opposed the present application and requested to allow the present application.

6. Learned Additional Public Prosecutors appearing on behalf of the respondent - State has opposed grant of anticipatory bail looking to the nature and gravity of the offence.

7. Having heard the learned advocates for the parties and perusing the material placed on record and taking into consideration the facts of the case, nature of allegations, gravity of offences, role attributed to the accused as well as on considering the following aspects this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the applicants.

(a) After filing of the FIR, the matter is settled between the parties and that fact is confirmed by learned Senior Advocate Mr.Unwala appearing assisted by the learned advocate Mr.Pravin Gondaliya appearing for the complainant.

(b) Learned Senior Advocate Mr. Unwala assisted by the learned advocate Mr.Pravin Gondaliya appearing for the complainant has given his consent to allow the present application.

(c) No antecedent is reported by the learned APP appearing for the respondent-State.

9. In the facts and circumstances of the present case, this Court is inclined to consider the case of the applicant to grant the anticipatory bail.

10. This Court has also taken into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Siddharam Satlingappa Mhetre Vs. State of Maharashtra and Ors., reported at [2011] 1 SCC 694, wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court reiterated the law laid down by the Constitution Bench in the case of Shri Gurubaksh Singh Sibbia & Ors. Vs. State of Punjab, reported at (1980) 2 SCC 565.

11. In the result, the present application is allowed. The applicant is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of his arrest in connection with a FIR being C.R. No. I-11192050240140 of 2024 registered with

Sanand Police Station, Ahmedabad, on executing a personal bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each with one surety of like amount on the following conditions:

- (a) shall cooperate with the investigation and make himself available for interrogation whenever required;
- (b) shall remain present at concerned Police Station on 01.06.2024 between 11.00 a.m. and 2.00 p.m.;
- (c) shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the fact of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the court or to any police officer;
- (d) shall not obstruct or hamper the police investigation and not to play mischief with the evidence collected or yet to be collected by the police;
- (e) shall at the time of execution of bond, furnish the address to the investigating officer and the court concerned and shall not change his residence till the final disposal of the case till further orders;
- (f) shall not leave India without the permission of the concerned trial court and if having passport shall deposit the same before the concerned trial court within a week; and
- (g) it would be open to the Investigating Officer to file an application for remand if he considers it proper and just and the learned Magistrate would decide it on merits;

11. Despite this order, it would be open for the Investigating Agency to apply to the competent Magistrate, for police remand of the applicant. The applicant shall remain present before the learned Magistrate on the first date of hearing of such application and on all subsequent occasions, as may be directed by the learned Magistrate. This would be sufficient to treat the accused in the judicial custody for the purpose of entertaining application of the prosecution for police remand. This is, however, without prejudice to the right of the accused to seek stay against an order of remand, if, ultimately, granted, and the power of the learned Magistrate to consider such a request in accordance with law. It is clarified that the applicant, even if, remanded to the police custody, upon completion of such period of police remand, shall be set free immediately, subject to other conditions of this anticipatory bail order.

12. At the trial, the concerned trial court shall not be influenced by the prima facie observations made by this Court in the present order.

13. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent. Direct service is permitted.
