CORAM:HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE M. R. MENGDEY

Date : 09/05/2024

ORAL ORDER

1. Rule. Learned APP waives service of notice of Rule on behalf of respondent-State.
2. This application is filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for regular bail in connection with F.I.R. No.11209041240159 of 2024 registered with Prantij Police Station, District Sabarkantha.
3. Learned advocate for the applicant submits that considering the nature of offence and role attributed to the applicant, the applicant may be enlarged on regular bail by imposing suitable conditions.

4. The learned APP appearing for the respondent State vehemently submits that there are as many as five other antecedents similar in nature against the present applicant. She, therefore, submits that the offences which have been charged, are serious in nature and looking to the facts as well as the allegations made against the applicant, no discretion is required to be exercised.
5. I have heard learned advocates appearing for the parties and perused the papers of investigation. From the record it appears that the investigation is over and Charge-sheet has already been filed. It is alleged against the present applicant that the applicant was driver of the vehicle from which 1676 bottles of contraband liquor worth Rs.1,67,600/- has been seized. Having regard to the seriousness of offence and allegations levelled against the present applicant, the present application deserves to be allowed.
6. This court has also considered the following aspects:

- (a) As per catena of decisions of Hon'ble Supreme Court, there are mainly 3 factors which are required to be considered by this court i.e. prima facie case, availability of Applicant accused at the time of trial and tampering and hampering with the witnesses by the accused.
  - (b) That the learned Advocate for the Applicant has submitted that the Applicant Accused is not likely to flee away.
  - (c) That the Applicant is in custody since 02.03.2024.
  - (d) The law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sanjay Chandra v. C.B.I. Reported in (2012) 1 SCC 40.
7. In the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of allegations made in the FIR and without discussing the evidence in details as well as without going into details, prima-facie, this Court is of the opinion that this is a fit case to exercise the discretion to enlarge the applicant on bail. Hence, the application is allowed and the applicant is ordered to be released on bail in connection with the aforesaid FIR, on executing a bond of Rs.10,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court and subject to the conditions that;
