Deepotsav and Chhath Mahaparv – Celebrating Light, Faith and Gratitude

Delhi Public School Gaya, is pleased to celebrate Diwali and Chhath Puja, two of the most vibrant and auspicious festivals of our country, symbolising the victory of good over evil, light over darkness, and the spirit of devotion and gratitude. The celebrations will provide an opportunity for students to appreciate India's rich cultural heritage, traditions, and spiritual values while fostering a sense of unity, joy, and respect for our diverse customs. The programme will feature engaging activities, including an audio-visual presentation on the significance, legends, and rituals associated with these festivals, encouraging students to explore the importance of an eco-friendly Diwali, the worship of Lord Surya, and the values of faith, discipline, and harmony with nature. The celebrations will serve as a heartfelt tribute to our cultural heritage and the timeless messages of righteousness, prosperity, gratitude, and environmental conservation.
